

This bill would expand voting access and rights to incarcerated people who have every right to take part in our democracy.