About the Event:

Chicago is a city of resilience and resistance. As a Global Health Ambassador, Alfred Lacks Carter brings a powerful message--linking global strategies with Chicago's local needs, lived experiences, and community-led solutions to address. From the historic legacy of Henrietta Lacks to today's urgent crisis of community violence, this event will spark dialogue and a call to action. Learn how we can prevent violence by promoting equity, trust, and healing.

Why You Should Attend:

- ✓ Gain insight into how public health intersect with violence prevention
- ✓ Explore how global frameworks can uplift local solutions
- ✓ Hear from a legacy leader inspired by justice and healing

Join us as we turn legacy into leadership—because peace begins with us.

House Bill 166 – Public Health – Henrietta Lacks Commission – Establishment (Henrietta Lacks Commission of Maryland Act of 2026)

Testimony Before the Education, Energy, and the Environment Committee

In light of the amendments to HB 166, the State Ethics Commission provides informational written testimony on the bill. The State Ethics Commission worked with the Sponsor and the Committee on amendments to remove the State Ethics Commission representative from the membership of the Henrietta Lacks Commission. As amended, the House bill no longer has any operational or fiscal impact on the State Ethics Commission.
