RE: Advancing Equal Educational Opportunities for All Students in Maryland
House Bill No. 649

Dear Delegate Melissa Wells and Committee Members,

We are writing to express opposition to House Bill 649 – Advancing Equal Educational Opportunities for All Students in Maryland.

Private and religious schools in Maryland operate pursuant to clearly defined missions and faith-based principles. Families who choose these schools do so with the understanding that the institutions reflect and uphold specific values and beliefs. Expanding state oversight into areas of governance traditionally reserved to private institutions raises serious concerns regarding autonomy, religious liberty, and parental choice.

Private and religious schools should not be subject to shifting political ideology that may conflict with their established missions and faith-based teachings.

Maryland has long recognized the importance of educational diversity and the right of families to select schooling environments aligned with their convictions. The Council believes that preserving the independence of nonpublic and religious schools is consistent with that longstanding policy.

For these reasons, we respectfully urge you to oppose House Bill 649.

Sincerely,

WICOMICO COUNTY, MARYLAND
