

Douglas Sloan Melnick, MD, MPH

Preventive Medicine Physician

Los Angeles, California.

As a former pharmaceutical company employee involved in producing disease awareness campaigns, I fully support Maryland HB1133.

Disease awareness campaigns are actually covert ways to promote new drugs, often prior to the actual approval of the new drug or indication and the drug's availability in the marketplace.

The funding for these campaigns should be completely transparent.

Douglas Sloan Melnick, MD, MPH