

Dear Chair Smith, Vice Chair Waldstreicher, and Honorable Members of Judicial Proceedings Committee,

My name is Rianna Eckel, I'm a resident of District 43A, and a member of Showing Up for Racial Justice. Showing Up for Racial Justice Baltimore is a group of individuals working to move white folks as part of a multi-racial movement for equity and racial justice in Baltimore City, Baltimore County, and Howard County. We are also working in collaboration with CASA. I am writing in support of SB791, the Community Trust Act.

Showing Up for Racial Justice

Maryland urgently needs this bill to pass, because 23 of Maryland's 24 counties have nothing in place to prevent local correctional officers and facilities from choosing to abet ICE in its lawless acts of mass incarceration and deportation. In 2025, these informal local collaborations were culpable for the transfer of over four times more Marylanders to ICE custody than were transferred through a formal 287(g) program. Most of these Marylanders had no criminal convictions.

The Community Trust Act bars correctional officers/facilities from asking about people's immigration/citizenship status, detaining someone to investigate their status (or based on a request by the federal government), notifying the federal government that a particular person is in custody, or transferring a person to federal custody in the absence of a valid judicial warrant.

The Act does not prevent the Federal government from enforcing immigration laws, does not hide any information from ICE, and does not impede ICE's access to the FBI's National Crime Information Center ("NCIC") database, where anyone booked in a Maryland correctional facility will still have their fingerprints uploaded.

What the Act accomplishes is to draw a line between Maryland law-enforcement officials and federal immigration-enforcement agents. Hence the name: the Act is a step toward restoring community trust in local law enforcement. Without that trust, law enforcement cannot function effectively, and the people of Maryland cannot feel that they are being protected.

It is for these reasons that I am encouraging you to issue a favorable report on SB791, the Community Trust Act.

Thank you for your time, service, and consideration.

Sincerely,
Rianna Eckel
