

Dear Chair Smith, Vice Chair Waldstreicher, and Honorable Members of the Judicial Proceedings Committee,

My name is Rianna Eckel, I live in District 43A, and I am a member of Showing Up for Racial Justice Baltimore. I was also arrested when I was 15, and having my charge expunged greatly improved my life. Showing Up for Racial Justice Baltimore is a group of individuals working to move white folks as part of a multi-racial movement for equity and racial justice in Baltimore City, Baltimore County, and Howard County. We are also working in collaboration with Out for Justice. I am writing in support of SB483 - the Clean Slate Act.

Showing Up for Racial Justice

Eligibility for criminal record expungement has expanded since the Maryland General Assembly passed the Justice Reinvestment and REDEEM Acts. However, an overwhelming majority of individuals who could have their charges expunged never petition the courts to do so. They may be unaware they are eligible for expungement or unable to navigate the process in an overburdened court system. The result is that only a tiny percentage of Marylanders whose convictions are eligible for expungement—less than 10%—actually get their records expunged within 5 years of becoming eligible.<sup>1</sup>

This has lasting effects. Charges that people could have had expunged may instead remain on their records permanently, which can dramatically impact their lives for the worse. Potential consequences of having a criminal record include being unable to rent an apartment, obtain employment or work credentials, gain admission to college or to programs that help pay for college, keep custody of one's children, access some government services, or vote in elections.<sup>2</sup> These avoidable consequences limit people's lives and ability to participate meaningfully in society and contribute to their communities.

SB483 would protect people from the stigma of unexpunged convictions by automating parts of the expungement process. It would require the courts to remove from public view (including the judiciary case search website) all offenses that are eligible for expungement, without the necessity of the person whose case it is filing a request for expungement. This ensures that a "clean slate" is available not just in theory, but in practice for any Marylanders who are eligible.

It is for these reasons that I am encouraging you to issue a favorable report on SB483 - the Clean Slate Act.

Thank you for your time, service, and consideration.

Sincerely,
Rianna Eckel
