

Since the beginning of President Trump's second term, the 287(g) program has ballooned to an unprecedented level. These programs threaten our public safety on taxpayers' dime – decreasing trust in local law enforcement and taking resources away from serious investigations. At the same time, they directly feed President Trump's abusive crusade against immigrants and citizens, alike.