

No community has the right to harass students for their trans status or the color of their skin, nor to hide or misrepresent their history. Epistemicide, the erasure of the knowledge of groups of people, is a component of genocide and Maryland must be rid of such violence.