The County Council for Montgomery County, Maryland approves the following Act:
Sec 1. Section 2-25D is added and Section 2-64I is amended as follows:

2-25D. Office of Labor Relations.

(a) The Office of Labor Relations is part of the Office of the County Executive. The Office is headed by the Chief Labor Relations Officer.

(b) The Office must:

(1) formulate and implement the County’s labor and employee relations policies;

(2) serve as the employer’s representative in collective bargaining, including any impasse or interest arbitration;

(3) serve as the employer’s representative in all matters before the Permanent Umpire and the Labor Relations Administrator, including prohibited practice charges;

(4) advise employees, managers, and supervisors on labor and employee relations matters, including implementation of collective bargaining agreements and the personnel regulations; and

(5) process grievances arising under a collective bargaining agreement or the personnel regulations.

Division 15. Office of Human Resources.

Sec. 2-64I. Functions.

The Office of Human Resources has the following functions:

(a) Under the administration of the [chief administrative officer] Chief Administrative Officer, supervise the [county] County merit system in accordance with the [county charter] County Charter, local, state and federal laws, rules and regulations.
(b) Assist all appointing authorities in the implementation of merit system [charter] Charter provisions and the personnel regulations of the [county executive] Executive.

(c) Assist the [county executive] Executive in the development and administration of a career service and in the administration of a comprehensive management personnel program.

(d) Provide cooperative personnel services to political subdivisions of Montgomery County or agencies supported in whole or in part by taxes levied by the [county council] Council and to the Montgomery County Revenue Authority.

(e) Perform related duties as assigned.

(f) Develop and administer the equal employment opportunity program, unless this responsibility is transferred to the [office of the chief administrative officer] Chief Administrative Officer in accordance with the termination provision of chapter 1, section 5 of the 1981 Laws of Montgomery County.

([g] Administer the county employee complaint/grievance procedures.]

Sec. 2. Expedited Effective Date.

The Council declares that this legislation is necessary for the immediate protection of the public interest. This Act takes effect on the date on which it becomes law.

Sec. 3. Transition.

References to the Office of Human Resources in County law or regulation means the Office of Labor Relations regarding those functions assigned to the Office of Labor Relations under this Act. If the Office of Human Resources is processing or deciding a grievance when this Act takes effect, the Chief Administrative Officer may designate either the Office of Human Resources or the Office of Labor Relations to continue processing or deciding the grievance.

Sec. 4. Budgeting and Reduction-In-Force.

The Office of Labor Relations is separate from the Office of the County Executive for purposes of budgeting and any reduction-in-force.
