determine. A majority of the members of the full Council shall constitute a quorum. The Council shall provide for the keeping and annual publication of a journal which shall be open to public

Upon the adoption of the Capital Budget any new project not previously contained in the Capital Budget and any additions constituting an enlargement of a project shall be subject to referendum. Once a project has been approved by referendum, that portion of a subsequent Bond Enabling Act or Bond Issue Authorization Ordinance relating to the project shall not be subject to referendum, and if a bond enabling bill including the project and identifying it is approved by referendum that portion of any subsequent bond issue authorization ordinance relating to the project shall not be subject to referendum. A law shall be submitted to a referendum of the voters upon petition of ten thousand (10,000) qualified voters of the County.

An emergency law shall remain in force from the date it becomes law notwithstanding the filing of such petition, but shall stand repealed thirty calendar days after having been rejected by a majority of the qualified voters of the County voting thereon.

A petition may consist of several papers, but each paper shall contain the text or a fair summary of the law being petitioned upon; and there shall be attached to each such paper an affidavit of the person procuring the signatures thereon that, to the said person's own personal knowledge, each signature thereon is genuine and bona fide, and that, to the best of [his or her] their knowledge, information, and belief, the signers are qualified voters of Prince George's County, as set opposite their names. A minor variation in the signature of a petitioner between [his or her] their signature on a petition and that on the voter registration records shall not invalidate the signature. The invalidation of one signature on a referendum petition shall not serve to invalidate any other signature on the petition. Each petitioner shall include [his or her] their address and the date of [his or her] their signature opposite [his or her] their name. The Board of Supervisors of Elections shall verify the qualification of said petitioners.

communications and for the disqualification of any person participating in the decision process, if there is a conflict between [his or her] their official duties and [his or her] their private interests.
The code of ethics shall also provide for the establishment of a five-member board to administer the code. Members of such board, to be known as the Board of Ethics, shall be appointed by the County Executive and confirmed by the Council for staggered terms. A member of the board can only be removed by the County Executive subject to approval by the Council. Not more than three members of the Board shall be members of the same political party.

Section 1002. Conflict of Interest.
No officer or employee of the County, whether elected or appointed, shall in any manner whatsoever be interested in, or receive any benefit from, the profits or emoluments of any contract, task. The provisions of this Section shall be broadly construed and strictly enforced for the purpose of preventing officers and employees from securing any pecuniary advantages, however indirect, from their public associations, other than their compensation provided by law. In order to guard against injustice, the Board of Ethics may, by resolution, specifically authorize any County officer or employee to own stock in any corporation or to maintain a business in connection with any person, firm, or corporation dealing with the County, if, on full public disclosure of all pertinent facts to the Board of Ethics by such officer or employee, the Board of Ethics shall determine that such stock ownership or connection does not violate the public interest. Any officer or employee of the County who willfully violates any of the provisions of this Section shall forfeit [his or her] their office. If any person shall offer, pay, refund, or rebate any part of any fee, commission, or other form of compensation to any officer or employee of the County in connection with any County business or proceeding, [he or she] they shall, on conviction, be punishable by imprisonment for not less than one or more than six months or a fine of not less than $100.00 or more than $1,000.00, or both. Any contract made in violation of this Section may be declared void by the County Executive or by resolution of the Council. The penalties in this Section shall be in

No officer or employee of the County, elected or appointed, whose compensation is fixed, in whole or in part, by this Charter, the laws of the County, or its personnel regulations, shall be entitled to any other compensation from the County for performance of public duties, except expenses for travel and subsistence incident to the performance of [his or her] their official duties as prescribed by law.

Section 1005. Official Lobbying.

The Council shall not appropriate or approve any funds for any agency which receives or disburses County funds, other than for the immediate staff of the County Executive and the Council, to be used for the purpose of securing the passage or defeat of any legislation. No officer appointed by the County Executive or by the Council may, in [his or her] their official capacity, recommend or request the passage or defeat of any legislation without the express prior approval of the County Executive or of the Council. Nothing herein shall preclude any officer or employee from providing public data or information in response to any official inquiry or making any recommendation required by law. Every officer or employee shall provide public data or information to the Council in response to an official inquiry or when making any recommendation required by law.
